Common Questions

- How long does it take to receive my registration card? If you purchased a registration card, it will be first class mailed out the following business day after your Local Association Approved your Registration.

- How long does my background check take? Most background checks finish with a few hours but if you submit your background check without your full legal name, it could take up to a couple weeks.

- How do I start umpiring games? You will need to contact your Local UIC for information on games and tournaments in your area.
